Alerts Page Flowchart Open Alerts Page Show the Tabs for Automatic and Manual Automatic Alert Manual Template Alert Show loading placeholder till the data of the alerts are fetched from the APIs. After getting data from API, there will be After getting data from API, there will be cards for Alert list. Each card will display cards for Template list. Each card will Alert name, description, station count, user display template name, sent list and a icon count and a toggle button for status to send the template or it will show error modification or it will show error message message On clicking the toggle button it will call api On clicking sent list the user will redirected and show a loading icon in place of the to the Template sent list and the API is toggle button, After API success called to fetch the sent list data of that response it will change accordingly template. Until the data is being fetched, loading is shown to the user. On clicking a tab, the alert id is added to the After getting the response from the API, the URL and the API is called to fetch the alert Sent list will be shown to the user. details data of that alert. Until the data is being fetched, loading is shown to the user. After getting the response from the API, the If user click the '+' icon at the 1st column of details will be shown to the user. any row available in the list, the user list will open for the alerts sent User can send the template by click User can Assign new user by clicking the on the '>>' icon on the template button given for assign new user listing page

